

Public Schools of North Carolina

2017 NCAGT Annual Conference: Moving Forward with Purpose

Sneha Shah Coltrane, Director
Stephanie Cyrus, State Consultant
Division of Advanced Learning & Gifted Education

Conference “Brain Dump”

Organizing our thoughts:

- Categorize your brain dump notes
- Consider your action steps in the next:
 - WEEK?
 - MONTH?
 - QUARTER?

How do we move forward with the plan?

- What would be your “brain dump” with your Local AIG plan?
 - Major goals to work on?
 - Ideas to implement?

The 3 year cycle...

2015-16 // Implementation
– Year 3 and Plan
Revision Year

- 2015-16 – Implementation Year 3 AND Plan Revision Year

- July 2016 – submit locally adopted plan to DPI/SBE for review & comment

2016 – 17 –
Implementation Year 1

- 2016 – 17 – Implementation Year 1

Local board approval –
submit to DPI/ SBE by July
Implement plan and mid-cycle (2017-2018) provide
feedback via Interim report

- 2017 – 18 – Implementation Year 2 (*Winter – Interim Report due)

Implement plan and mid-
cycle (2017-2018) provide
feedback via Interim report

- 2018 – 19 – Implementation Year 3 AND Plan Revision Year

The TARGET...

Consider

- What is one GOAL that you have for this plan cycle?

a goal without a plan is just a wish

- Antoine de Saint Exupéry

The PLAN for making it happen?

- What structures do you need to put in place?
- What support will you need to seek out and provide staff?
- What resources will you need to make it happen?

How can DPI support you?

- Coordinators' Institute
- Think Tank series on service delivery
- Providing new resources –
 - New booster shot series

Questions?

We must synergize our efforts to ensure that the potential of all AIG learners is optimized!

AIG: All Day, Every Day!

Sneha Shah-Coltrane

Director of Advanced Learning and Gifted Education

(919) 807-3849

Sneha.shahcoltrane@dpi.nc.gov

Stephanie Cyrus

State Consultant, AIG and Advanced Programs

(929) 807 – 3698

Stephanie.cyrus@dpi.nc.gov

